

Escafeld Chorale was founded in the 1969 as the Fossdale Singers by music teacher Ron Law (who lived in Fossdale Road). From this small beginning, the choir has grown to about 80 members and, along the way, changed its name to Escafeld Chorale. Our current Music Director is Ian Roberts, who is also Music Director at St.John's Church, Ranmoor, Sheffield. This will be the 21st Christmas concert which Escafeld Chorale have presented in Wentworth Church, and promises to be to the usual high standard. The choir continues to go from strength to strength. We usually perform four concerts each year.

Friends of Escafeld Chorale.

Friends support the choir by making an annual gift of £40, for which they receive advanced publicity, two free tickets and a programme for each of our concerts for the following twelve months. Unless you wish to remain anonymous, your name will be included in our Register of Friends, and in each concert programme, with our thanks.

Escafeld Chorale invite you to join them in Celebrating Christmas in Words and Music

with Mince Pies and Mulled Wine
(or Tea or Coffee)
in Wentworth Church on Saturday,
5th December at 7.30 pm.

This mixed choir of over fifty people will sing Christmas music, and you will be invited to join in some of the items. The music will be interspersed with seasonal readings, some of which may be quite funny.

Tickets will be available from mid-November by completing the form on the right, or from Roy Smalley at the Church. Tickets in advance cost £7.00, or you may pay at the door, where the cost is £8.00. All tickets include a free programme and light refreshments. This will be the 21st successive year that this concert has been held at Wentworth. Be sure you don't miss it!
